Authority: State Government Article, §§9-1A-02, 9-1A-04, 9-1A-15, 9 Annotated Code of Maryland  Authority: State Government Article, §§9-1A-02, 9-1A-04, 9-1A-15, 9 Annotated Code of Maryland  Annota	ALS
Annotated Code of Maryland  27 Cashless Funds Transfer System — Additional Requirements.  A. A facility operator may utilize a cashless funds transfer system that he certified, and approved under this chapter.  B. A facility operator shall, in a form and in a time frame specified by the areport to the Commission detailing any adjustment made to the amount to or from a video lottery terminal, table game, or wagering account by funds transfer system.  C. A facility operator utilizing a cashless funds transfer system shall definite internal controls submitted to and approved by the Commission under Comprocedures addressing the integrity, security, and control of a cashless funds transfer system including:  (a) The procedures utilized to create a unique access code to, and a identification number for, a player account; and  (b) The controls employed to secure a player's access code;  (2) The intended scope of use of a cashless funds transfer system included to:	ards
27 Cashless Funds Transfer System — Additional Requirements.  A. A facility operator may utilize a cashless funds transfer system that he certified, and approved under this chapter.  B. A facility operator shall, in a form and in a time frame specified by the a report to the Commission detailing any adjustment made to the amount to or from a video lottery terminal, table game, or wagering account by funds transfer system.  C. A facility operator utilizing a cashless funds transfer system shall desinternal controls submitted to and approved by the Commission under CC procedures addressing the integrity, security, and control of a cashless funds transfer system shall address:  (1) Set-up and administration of a player account including:  (a) The procedures utilized to create a unique access code to, and a identification number for, a player account; and  (b) The controls employed to secure a player's access code;  (2) The intended scope of use of a cashless funds transfer system included to:	15, 9-1A-22, and 9-1A-24,
A. A facility operator may utilize a cashless funds transfer system that he certified, and approved under this chapter.  B. A facility operator shall, in a form and in a time frame specified by the a report to the Commission detailing any adjustment made to the amount to or from a video lottery terminal, table game, or wagering account by funds transfer system.  C. A facility operator utilizing a cashless funds transfer system shall definiternal controls submitted to and approved by the Commission under CC procedures addressing the integrity, security, and control of a cashless fur  D. A facility operator's internal controls shall address:  (1) Set-up and administration of a player account including:  (a) The procedures utilized to create a unique access code to, and a identification number for, a player account; and  (b) The controls employed to secure a player's access code;  (2) The intended scope of use of a cashless funds transfer system included to:
B. A facility operator shall, in a form and in a time frame specified by the a report to the Commission detailing any adjustment made to the amount to or from a video lottery terminal, table game, or wagering account by funds transfer system.  C. A facility operator utilizing a cashless funds transfer system shall definiternal controls submitted to and approved by the Commission under CC procedures addressing the integrity, security, and control of a cashless fur  D. A facility operator's internal controls shall address:  (1) Set-up and administration of a player account including:  (a) The procedures utilized to create a unique access code to, and a identification number for, a player account; and  (b) The controls employed to secure a player's access code;  (2) The intended scope of use of a cashless funds transfer system included to:	• a report to the Commission detailing any adjustment made to the amount to or from a video lottery terminal, table game, or wagering account by funds transfer system.  C. A facility operator utilizing a cashless funds transfer system shall deinternal controls submitted to and approved by the Commission under CC procedures addressing the integrity, security, and control of a cashless fur  D. A facility operator's internal controls shall address:  (1) Set-up and administration of a player account including:  (a) The procedures utilized to create a unique access code to, and a identification number for, a player account; and  (b) The controls employed to secure a player's access code;  (2) The intended scope of use of a cashless funds transfer system included to:	nat has been tested, internal controls submitted to and approved by the Commission under CC procedures addressing the integrity, security, and control of a cashless fur  D. A facility operator's internal controls shall address:  (1) Set-up and administration of a player account including:  (a) The procedures utilized to create a unique access code to, and a identification number for, a player account; and  (b) The controls employed to secure a player's access code;  (2) The intended scope of use of a cashless funds transfer system included to:	unt of a credit transferred
(1) Set-up and administration of a player account including:  (a) The procedures utilized to create a unique access code to, and a identification number for, a player account; and  (b) The controls employed to secure a player's access code;  (2) The intended scope of use of a cashless funds transfer system included to:	COMAR 36.03.10.05
(a) The procedures utilized to create a unique access code to, and a identification number for, a player account; and (b) The controls employed to secure a player's access code; (2) The intended scope of use of a cashless funds transfer system included to:
identification number for, a player account; and  (b) The controls employed to secure a player's access code;  (2) The intended scope of use of a cashless funds transfer system included to:
(2) The intended scope of use of a cashless funds transfer system included used to:	d a unique player used to:
(a) Transfer credits to a video lottery terminal, table game, or wag	including whether it will be vagering account; and
For May 27, 2021 Commission.

Title 36 MARYLAND STATE LOTTERY AND GAMING CONTROL AGENCY

The proposed amendment would allow cashless wagering systems to be offered at a table game and other wagering accounts.

1

25 26	player account; and
27	(3) Documentation of individual player transactions including a requirement that:
28	(a) Each transaction is identified, at a minimum, by:
29	(i) Date and time;
30 31	(ii) Video lottery terminal manufacturer serial number or Commission asset number, table game number, or wagering account number; and
32	(iii) The player's account identification number;
33	(b) A statement of player account activity is available to a player on:
34	(i) Submission of a signed request for the statement at the cashiers' cage; and
35 36 37	(ii) Establishing the identification of the player including the authenticity of the player's signature on the request for the statement in accordance with the signature authentication procedures in COMAR 36.03.10.20;
38 39 40	(c) The statement of player account activity required under this regulation summarize, at a minimum, a player's activity during the month prior to the date of the request for a statement and include:
41	(i) Player's beginning credit balance;
42	(ii) Credits earned during the month;
43	(iii) Credits transferred to a video lottery terminal, table game, or wagering account;
44 45	(iv) Credits transferred from a video lottery terminal, table game, or wagering account to a player account; and
46	(v) Player's ending credit balance; and
47 48	(d) The statement of player account activity required under this regulation need not include promotional play credits transferred to a player without regard to the identity of the player.

For May 27, 2021 Commission.

The proposed amendment would allow cashless wagering systems to be offered at a table game and other wagering accounts.