Chapter 8 - Placing Bets; Minimum and Maximum Bets.

A. Only a player who is seated at a Poker table may receive cards and participate in a betting round.

B. A player may participate in the betting during a round of play in accordance with the following requirements:

(1) A player may bet only with the table stakes that were already on the Poker table in front of the player when the round of play commenced.

(2) A player may add to the player's table stakes only between rounds of play and, except as provided in §B(6) of this chapter, may not remove any of the player's table stakes from the Poker table at any time during a round of play.

(3) Currency that is available for use by a player may be utilized in accordance with this chapter to initiate, call or raise a bet if the currency is expeditiously converted into value chips, tournament chips or plaques by the dealer.

(4) A player shall have an amount of currency, value chips, tournament chips or plaques available on the Poker table prior to the start of the round of play that is sufficient to make any Ante, Blind or Forced Bet required by the Poker game being played and at least one bet at the posted table minimum.

(5) A player who satisfies the requirements in §B(4) of this chapter, but depletes his or her funds on the Poker table prior to the completion of a round of play, shall be deemed All-In as follows:

(a) An All-In player shall retain a financial interest in the outcome of the round of play, but is eligible to win only the amount of the pot to which the player contributed;

(b) An All-In player shall continue to receive all cards to which the player would normally be entitled; and

(c) Betting shall continue unimpeded among the other players by generating a separate side pot which only those players shall be eligible to win.

(6) If a player indicates an intent to temporarily leave a Poker table during a round of play without relinquishing his seat at the table, at the player's request a floorperson or above shall:

Maryland Lottery and Gaming Control Agency
Standard Rules - Poker

(a) Determine the amount of the player's table stakes prior to the player's departure from the table and verify that the amount of the player's table stakes have not been changed upon the player's return to the table; or

(b) Maintain the player's table stakes on the table surface using a nontransparent cover until the player's return.

C. If it is a player's turn to act, the player's verbal statement of "fold", "check", "call" or "raise", or a player's announcement of a specific bet within the rules of the Poker game being played and the minimum and maximum betting limits for the Poker table, shall be binding on the player.

D. A player who announces a bet or raise of a certain amount but places a different amount of value chips, tournament chips or plaques in the pot shall to correct the bet or raise to the announced amount in accordance with the instructions of the dealer.

E. A player shall be considered to have placed a bet if the player:

(1) Pushes value chips, tournament chips or plaques forward to indicate the intent to place a bet.

(2) Places value chips, tournament chips or plaques at a sufficient distance from the player and towards the pot to make it obvious that the value chips, tournament chips or plaques are intended as a bet.

(3) Places currency into the pot to be exchanged for chips in accordance with §B(3) of this chapter.

F. A player may not make a bet and thereafter attempt to increase the amount of the bet unless the player:

(1) Indicates at the time the bet is being made that the bet is not yet complete; or

(2) Puts the proper amount of value chips, tournament chips or plaques into the pot to call a bet and also indicates his intention to raise.

G. Subject to the posted table betting limits, a player who announces "raise" must state the amount the player is raising or put all of the chips in the pot at once.

Maryland Lottery and Gaming Control Agency
Standard Rules - Poker

H. A dealer shall ensure that no player touches any of the value chips, tournament chips or plaques once they are placed into the pot.

I. Unless a raise has been verbally announced by a player, the player who puts a single value chip or tournament chip into the pot that is larger than required is assumed to have only called the preceding bet and to be awaiting change from the dealer.

J. A facility operator shall post a sign specifying any restrictions on the maximum number of raises that may be permitted for any round of betting and the minimum and maximum bets in effect at each Poker table.

(1) If all players at a Poker table agree to increase the minimum bet at the table, the minimum bet posted at the table need not be followed.

(2) Unless specifically posted to the contrary, a player may raise after the player has previously checked in a betting round.

K. A facility operator shall include in its Rules Submission under COMAR 36.05.03.19 any restrictions on:

(1) The maximum number of raises that may be permitted for a round of betting;

(2) Provisions specifying the maximum amount that the minimum bet may be increased; and

(3) How the dealer will determine that all of the players have agreed to the increased minimum bet amount.

L. If specified in its Rules Submission, a facility operator may offer to players the option of Running it twice.

(2) To qualify to run it twice:

(a) The table cannot be a tournament table;

(b) Only two players can be in the pot with live hands;

(c) One of the players must be all-in;

(d) Both players must agree to run it twice;

Maryland Lottery and Gaming Control Agency
Standard Rules - Poker

(e) The players must notify the dealer of the request to run it twice before the river card has been dealt;

4. After the dealer verifies the players request to run it twice, the cards are dealt as follows:

(a) The remaining community cards are dealt to the board, burning a card before each up card.

(b) The first set of community cards dealt are slid forward and left on the table.

(c) The dealer then deals another set of community cards including either:

(i) The turn and river, or

(ii) The river.

5. Each player shall form a hand from the community cards, and the winner of the pot shall be:

(a) The player with the highest ranking hand formed using the first set of community cards shall receive half of the pot; and

(b) The player with the highest ranking hand formed using the second set of community cards shall receive half of the pot.
